

---

Rent Price Comparison

60%

Average rent in Manhattan stands at $5,620, highlighting affordability issues.

“Understanding rent prices helps you make informed decisions.”

60%

Hamilton Heights: $2,741

A budget-friendly option for renters seeking value.

72%

Hell’s Kitchen: $5,226

A premium neighborhood with higher living costs.

15%

Inwood: $3,323

Affordable option with great amenities and access.

Analyzing rent prices across Manhattan neighborhoods reveals significant disparities that can influence your housing choices, providing better insight into the rental landscape in this vibrant city.